Frontier Youth Trust

Frontier Youth Trust's 'You've been ASBO'd certificate' is a stylish award that we want youth workers, teachers, parents, community leaders and any other adults to present to young people who they think merit this symbol to say that they are Al-right Sensational Beautiful Original!

a Christian network dedicated to mission with young people at risk. We are directly involved in youth work through a wide range of projects, agencies, churches and individuals. We are also very active in training youth workers, producing resources, campaigning with and for young people and researching youth work related themes.

Dave Wiles is an original Christian hoodie. In his youth he might have been ASBO'd if the courts had invented them then!

Dave is team leader of FYT and has 30+ years of youth and community work experience. - 50% of his time focused on trying to get people in the world to join the church and 50% trying to get the church to join the world!
